

Conservation - Legacy and Innovation

A FREE one-day conference to celebrate 50 years of the Brockley Conservation Area

Saturday 21 October 2023, 10am - 4pm

Lewisham College, Lewisham Way, SE4 1UT

10.00 How We Got Here

Nicholas Taylor (author, former councillor and Brockley resident): FILM 'The campaign for the conservation movement nationally and its implementation in Lewisham'

John Moreland (Founding Chair, Brockley Society): 'The campaign to establish a conservation area in Brockley'

Gillian Heywood MBE (President of Brockley Society): 'Protecting the Brockley Conservation Area once designated'

11.15 Achievements & Exemplar Projects

Robert Barker (Stolon Studio):
'The Rusty House, 18 Ashby Road, SE4 1PX'

Harriet Saddington (Harriet Saddington Ltd):
'69c Tressillian Road Extension, SE4 1YA'

Hannah Campbell (Hannah Campbell Design):
'1836 Coach House design'

Rhys Cannon (Gruff Architects):
'8a Tyrwhitt Road, SE4 1QG'

13.15 Current Concerns

Jens Cole (DC Design / Brockley Society's planning group): 'Energy Efficiency & Heritage Conservation'

David John (Historic England / SPAB):
'Heritage at risk and the future - a personal view'

Robert Prewett (Prewett Bizley):
'Retrofit / Passivhaus Case Studies'

Anna-Maria Cahalane (Co-founder, Fourth Reserve Foundation): 'Brockley Green and Gorne Wood - how history played a part in protection from development'

14.30 Community Involvement - Ways Forward

Nick Patton (Blackheath Society, Trustee/Management Committee): 'The challenge of large developments beyond the CA boundaries'

Malcolm Bacchus (Chair, Telegraph Hill Society): 'The changing face of community involvement: a reflection'

Annabel McLaren (Outgoing Chair of Sydenham Society): 'Sydenham town centre - 10 years since the Portas Pilot'

Paul Thornton (Vice Chair, London Forum of Amenity and Civic Societies): 'A London-wide perspective'

Book your FREE ticket at www.ticketsource.co.uk/brockley-society (scan the QR code) or visit our website:
www.brockleysociety.org.uk

BROCKLEY  SOCIETY

